

Many thanks for your prayers for the meeting of Oblate Partners last weekend in San Antonio, as they learned more about Islam. The second item below is a good description. You might be interested in the fifth item too, about an earlier trip to Cuba.

Let us continue to pray, read, and especially make friends with people of other religions. We can be the face of Jesus for them.

Fr. Harry Winter, OMI

Issue: # 201

February 15, 2017

Oblate U.S. Province E-Newsletter

Quick Links

www.omiusa.org

www.omiworld.org

Oblategiving.org

JPIC

Oblate Missions

Oblate Partnership

MAMI

MindsEye

Oblate Ecumenism

Oblate Vocations

Oblate Associates

La Vista Ecological Learning Ctr.

Eugene de Mazenod Sneaks to

Dear Fr. Harry,

- Oblate Day Message from U.S. Provincial, Very Rev. William Antone, OMI
- Oblate Partnership Addresses

Us
Facebook
Twitter
Pinterest

Christian-Muslim Relations in San Antonio

- Video for "Oblate Day" February 17, 2017
- Oblate Associates Pilgrimage: Part II - Aix and Marseilles
- Oblate Partnership "Cuba Experience"
- Catholics Find Opportunities to Invest, Contribute for Good
- The Sister of a Blessed Oblate
- Fr. Ron Rolheiser, OMI: "Loyalty and Patriotism Revisted"
- In Case You Missed it: Here's the Article that Received the Most Clicks Last Week!
- Please "Like" St. Eugene de Mazenod on Facebook - Click Here

How do you like OMIUSA.ORG?

Please let us know!
And don't forget, when you have an item for our Newsletter send it to us at:

wshaw@omiusa.org

Sincerely,

Will Shaw

Director of Communications, U.S. Province Of the Missionary Oblates of Mary Immaculate

wshaw@omiusa.org