

Many thanks to Delores Mordorski for sending me the very important statement from Pope Francis about ecumenism. Click below.

Pope Francis, during his Mass on Nov. 1, in Malmo, Sweden, proposed six new Beatitudes: the sixth is "Blessed are those who pray and work for full communion between Christians." My thanks to each of you for your involvement in the sixth new Beatitude.

Following up on the e-mail of Oct. 22, many thanks also for your prayers for the Oblate meeting of Oct. 24-26, with our national administration. It went very well.

Also, thanks for your prayers for my presentation on the Catholic Church, to the 35 students in Dr. Bob Brenneman's class Introduction to World Religions, at the evangelical Northwestern University, Roseville, MN., on Oct. 27. The students had many good questions, and the class ended with better understanding between Evangelicals and Catholics. Please keep Dr. Brenneman's work with Moslems in your prayers. See the dialogue page of the MUD website for more: www.harrywinter.org.

As we prepare to celebrate Thanksgiving Day, our only national religious holiday, may every American sense the place of Jesus Christ and His Church in our nation. For an interesting take on our evangelical catholic Vice-President elect Mike Pence, see the Wikipedia article on him, especially the sections "Personal Life."
