

Edmonton's Sacred Heart Church of the First Peoples

When our superior general, Louie Lougen, wrote his article for the Catholic Digest on Oblate Spirituality, he mentioned how Oblates are not only specialists in difficult missions, but specialists in making missions difficult (see Dialogue/Islam Page for his article). There is a long list of Oblates who differed with their superiors, and who were dismissed from our congregation. Perhaps the most famous is Con Scollen, whose biography may be read on our international website www.omiworld.org, Historical Dictionary. Like the following recently dismissed Oblate, Jim Holland, Con worked in Canada. Click here for Jim Holland
