As the Winter Olympics wind down, let us be aware of St. Paul's attention to the preparations held at Corinth for the Olympics of his time: I Cor. 9:24-27. He writes about the gold medal of his day, a wreath of laurel leaves. I am sure that many of the Five Ways Fellowship members have earned a laurel wreath/gold medal by your attention to evangelism, ecumenism and dialogue.

I hope you can open the link below, and the link of May 28, 2019 within that link. Venerable Madeleine Delbrel shows us the Holy Spirit working within Catholic laity to restore their evangelization ministry, and using French Oblates of Mary Immaculate, especially Jean Gueguen, OMI, to do so. Dr. Mann's book is out of print, but inter-library loan probably has copies available through your local library. More of Delbrel's writings are available on Mission-Unity-Dialogue, Family/Laity page, www.harrywinter.org.

Many thanks to those who responded to the Jan. 7 Five Ways e-letter.

In His love,

Fr. Harry Winter, O.M.I.
