

May 7th/8th, 2014

Father Richard Flom of the (Eastern) Orthodox Church in America spoke to us (Fr. Ted had a funeral and recommended Fr. Richard). He described the beauty of Orthodox worship, and how the architecture of the church reflects it. He suggested that Mother Teresa is a good example of Christians working together to bring Christ to our world.

Corrine Bauer, in the evening session, brought up the need for support of the Dorothy Day Center in downtown St. Paul. She will obtain more information on who actually owns the building.

Two speakers have been suggested for the autumn meeting. Fr. Harry will let us know about the speaker and time.

A total of twenty attended the two sessions, most coming from St. Patrick's, but with some from St. Casimir's, and St. Peter's in north St. Paul. See the photos.

Dr. Tatiana Flom MD, Rev. Dr. Richard Flom MD, Fr. Harry Winter OMI, and Rev. Steve West, Chaplain and Administrator, Assembly of God Church

Joan Scheller, Shirley Heilman, Tom Nordren, Anna Elia, Jim West, Loretta Connelly (all St. Patrick's) and Jackie Blossom (St. Casimir).
